Water parks are a type of theme park. In a water park all the rides have water. Water parks have a lot of water slides. Some slides have open chutes, and some have covered chutes. I like the open chutes the best. I like to see the sky when I ride the slides. The closed chutes are often narrow. I don't like narrow spaces.
Some water parks have an area for little kids. In these areas you can play with water cannons, and sprinklers. Little kids love to run through the sprinklers. You can try to guess where the water will come out next. I love playing with the water cannons. The water cannons can be pointed at people so you can soak your friends.
Water Parks
When you first get to a theme park, you need to buy a ticket. Most theme parks give you a wristband. This usually means you can go on all the rides there. Some theme parks give you a special wristband that lets you skip the lines. That is an awesome wristband to have. You should also rinse before you enter the water. This helps to keep the water as clean as possible.
Water parks are fantastic for everyone. I love visiting water parks. My family and I go to one every summer.
You always have lifeguards at a water park. Lifeguards are trained to rescue people in water. They keep you safe when you're near water.
