

A. Definition

1. Singular possessive nouns show ownership by more than one person, place, or thing.

True

False

2. Plural possessive nouns show ownership by more than one person, place, or thing.

True

False

B. Singular or plural possessive? Check the box.

| Possessive Noun | Singular possessive | Plural possessive |
|-----------------|---------------------|-------------------|
| cat's           | ✓                   |                   |
| childrens'      |                     |                   |
| goats'          |                     |                   |
| cave's          |                     |                   |
| jungles'        |                     |                   |
| person's        |                     |                   |
| car's           |                     |                   |
| dogs'           |                     |                   |
| camel's         |                     |                   |
| goose's         |                     |                   |
| shoes'          |                     |                   |
| baby's          |                     |                   |
| women's         |                     |                   |
| hands'          |                     |                   |
| lion's          |                     |                   |
| teacher's       |                     |                   |

C. Read each sentence below. Change the underlined words to form a singular possessive noun. Rewrite the sentence in the space provided.

Example: The tail of the tiger was wagging.

The tiger's tail was wagging.

1. The mother of my friend had a baby yesterday.

2. The teeth of the baby are not in yet.

3. The smile of the uncle is happy.

4. The gift of the grandmother was a new blanket.

5. The eyes of the baby are blue.

6. The leaves of the tree were falling down.

7. We saw the baby of the cat sleeping in a tree.

8. I need to cook dinner of my mom today.

D. Write a sentence using the plural possessive noun of each word below.

1. foxes

2. animals

3. children

4. people

5. parents

6. grandparents

7. donkeys

8. trees